"The Whole Thing Stinks!" Selectmen blast engineering firm

The engineering firm that designed the Burlington dam, the dam which allows water to seep into Woburn and Wilmington, and which causes Weeping Hill, experienced a solid round of non-confidence, Monday night, in the Wilmington Selectmen's meeting.

Whitman & Howard, engineering firm from Boston, was unanimously condemned. They were condemned not only for their non-cooperative attitude on the Burlington Dam, but for the current troubles of the Wilmington Water Department.

Some months ago, discussing the troubles of the Burlington dam, Selectman George Boylen cut loose in making a condemnation of Whitman & Howard. At that time Mr. Boylen was alone. Monday night all the selectmen joined.

Monday's discussion was started by Selectman Miceli, after the Town Manager had told of the reception of a letter from him by the Burlington Selectmen.

"Whitman & Howard" said Miceli. "Here is a firm we hire as a consultant - we have had more trouble - and the Burlington dam is not the only thing."

Miceli said he could not see why Whitman & Howard should ever get another study case from Wilmington. It was a firm that got a lot of money from the towns in the area - he had just read where they were getting $60,000 for a study in Tewksbury which was also having troubles with water. "I have gone sour on that firm."

Later he added that "they should have been able to pinpoint troubles, with all their experience."

Selectman Boylen, who had been the first to speak up against the firm, described some water pipe that a Water Department employee had shown him. The water pipe was not rusted, but there were deposits of rust on the pipe. It had come, Boylen said, from the Town Park wells, which had been located by the firm of Whitman & Howard.

Boylen: We are talking about four loops of water mains with rusty water).

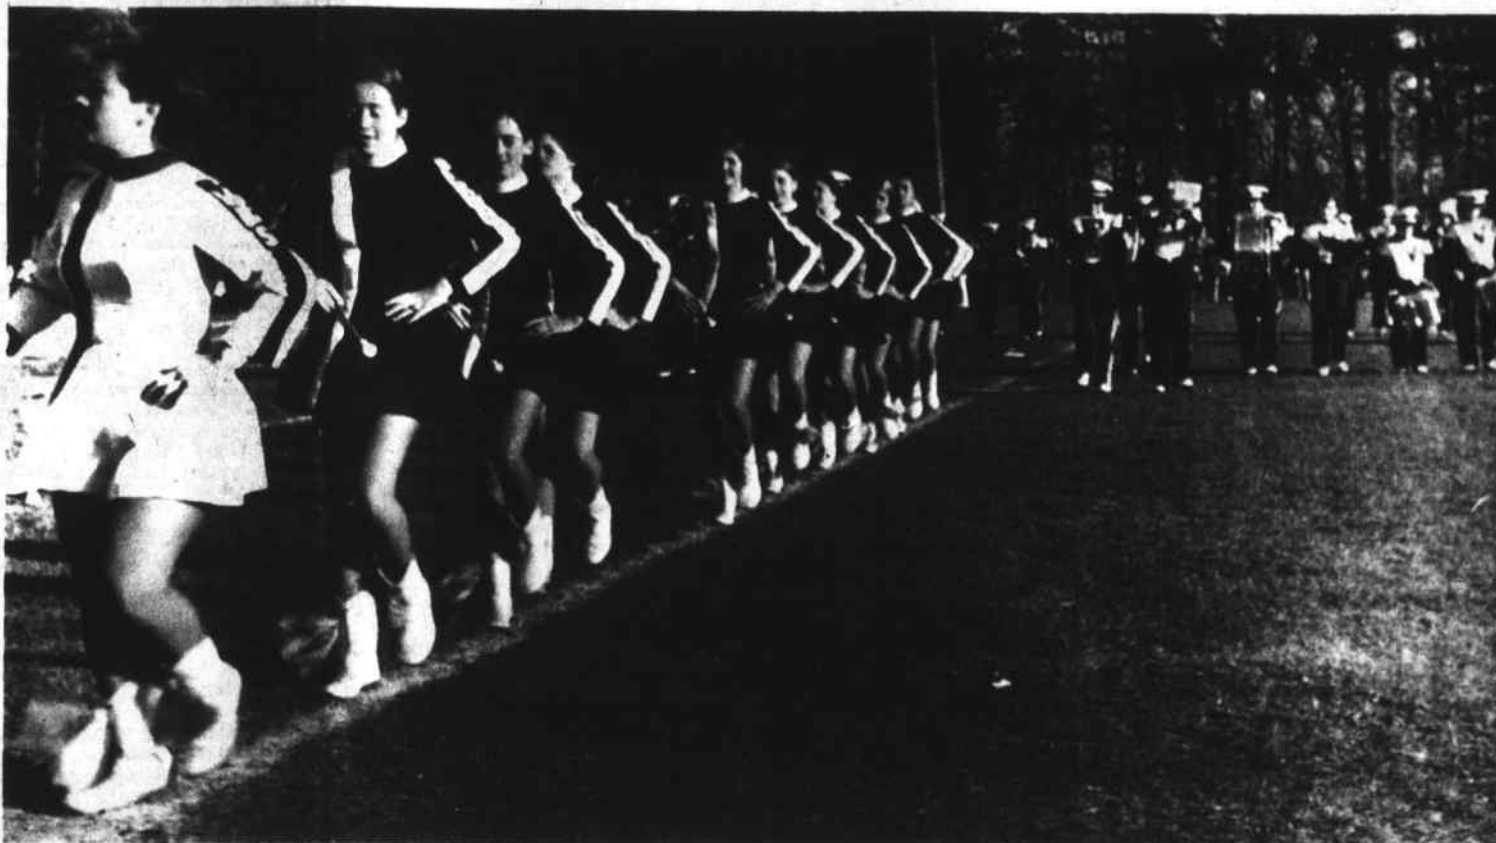

Miceli: I have had it up to here! Chairman Banda: I think we have all said it to the Town Manager - how we felt on Whitman & Howard.

For a while there was a discussion of the letter which the Town Manager had sent to Burlington selectmen, and the damages resulting from the Burlington dam. It was Miceli who brought the conservation back to the firm of Whitman & Howard.

He told of the consulting firm of Casa Grande, and how they had blamed Whitman & Howard. Whitman & Howard, he said, "should admit it - it's their damage. They have extensive insurance policies against damage - it won't hurt them!"

Selectman Boylen: The whole thing stinks! The selectmen were in 100% agreement.

THE 1973 FOOTBALL SEASON IS NOW A THING OF THE PAST: Just so much history, but one can still take joy in a nice picture of Wilmington's majorettes, doing their part, in a recent game. They are shown lined up on the Wilmington field, with the High School band behind them. The girl in white is Capt. Janice Gennitti of Forest Street.

Wilmington Council for the Aging to submit a budget?

Will there be a budget, for the Wilmington Council for the Aging this year? Will there be a committee that will meet, and will work? These were questions that were asked, in one form or another, at the Selectmen's meeting, Monday night.

The discussion was a long one. It took nearly three quarters of an hour, and was colored by lingering disagreements over the discussion of two weeks ago, of the use of the Harnden Tavern.

Mrs. Nina Reynolds of Cunningham Street, who has been actively working in the Drop-In-Center at the Wilmington Plaza was present, as was Mrs. Bernice Lynch of Grove Avenue, her volunteer assistant. The two ladies participated, to a degree, in the long discussion.

At the present time money for the Council for the Aging is funneled through the Recreation Department. The Selectmen felt that the Council should handle its own funds, and have its own budget, but there had been no meetings of that council, and of the twelve or thirteen persons named to it only a few were showing any interest.

Chairman Banda could not see the town turning money over to a committee which does not function. Selectman Mike Cairns said that it should be made clear that if the committee intends to act there should be participating members. The Selectmen want a budget by the 10th of December. The Town Manager must submit a budget, including such things as the Council, budget on the 20th.

A place for meetings of older people was another subject in which there was disagreement. At the present time an empty store at the Wilmington Plaza is being used, as a Drop-In-Center. Mrs. Reynolds is there daily from 10 am to 4 pm, and cannot get away. She wants Mrs. Lynch to be her assistant, officially.

There was talk of using the carriage shed, at the Harnden Tavern as a Drop-In-Center, but the selectmen did not know if it could be used, and Selectman Boylen held that the selectmen's rights had been abrogated, two weeks ago, in the vote on Harnden Tavern. He said that if it were in his power he would make a motion to have "that barn" fixed up.

The present Drop-In-Center, he pointed out, can be closed on two weeks notice.

Boylen also suggested the possible use of the Knights of Columbus Hall as a Drop-In-Center.

Selectman Gillis felt that there clearly was a need, but that many factors were involved, and had to be understood. Miceli said that there had not been any refusal of the use of the "barn", but felt the Drop-In-Center should be more central.

If no budget is submitted by December 10th it may be possible to have a Warrant Article, for a Town Meeting. A petition had been submitted to the selectmen, with 300 signatures, for funds for a program for older people.

Give a Pint a Minute Bloodmobile calls Saturday

The response of the people of Wilmington to the Red Cross Bloodmobile has been very good this year. But it has to be a sustained effort, to be effective.

Wilmington is having its final Bloodmobile Visit Saturday, from 10 am to 4 pm. It will be at the Friendship Hall of the United Methodist Church, on Church Street (Route 62).

It is to be hoped that, starting next year only two blood drives will have to be held in any one year, one in June and the other early in December.

A good response entitles the people of Wilmington to 100% blood coverage on all costs of blood; for anyone in the town who needs it.

The present concern of the people of Wilmington is the Bloodmobile visit of Saturday. The goal is not easy - it is not a time to let the other fellow do it.

Two hundred pints of blood must be donated Saturday, to keep the Wilmington sponsorship going. Assuming that some will have to be turned away because of an illness, that means that sixty persons must appear, every hour - one every minute. So the goal is one pint of blood every minute.

Will Wilmington be able to do it?

Planning Board Agreement To plan new Woburn Street Bypass

The Wilmington Planning Board, Tuesday evening signed an agreement with a Boston engineering firm to prepare plans for a new by-pass, for Woburn Street, south of Lowell Street. The by-pass will be designed to divert industrial and through traffic from a residential area.

The agreement is with a firm named Universal Engineering Corp., of 100 Boylston Street, Boston, and already has been signed by the president of the firm, David Nassif. It has to be signed by Wilmington's Town Manager before it becomes effective, but no difficulty is expected on that score.

According to the wording of the agreement, the firm is to prepare engineering and surveying services for implementing a part of the Master Plan of Wilmington, prepared with the assistance of Prof. Charles Eliot, for a proposal to divert traffic off Woburn Street, and further south, along New Boston Street in Woburn.

The planning is to include a location study, preliminary construction estimates and possible environmental impact studies, and is to be completed in time for submission to the annual Town Meeting, which date of submission is assumed to be December 31.

The overall contract price is $7,000

SCHOOL COMMITTEE MEETS TONIGHT

The Wilmington School Committee will hold a meeting tonight at 8 pm, in the School Committee conference room in the Roman House, 159 Church Street.

It will hear a report from the superintendent relative to the energy crisis in the schools, and they will continue the discussion regarding the milk contract with Blue Ribbon Dairy and possible adjustments in the school lunch program. The School Committee will also consider a request for a student trip to France sponsored by the Foreign Language Department as well as discuss the disposition of N.D.E.A., Title III funds.

The Special Education Director will be present to report to the committee on the implementation of Chapter 76B.

Wilmington will sue Burlington withholds report

The Burlington Board of Selectmen refused, Monday night, to release a report on the Burlington dam, prepared for them by the Cassagrande Consultants, the Arlington firm that had been hired last summer as consultants to investigate the cause of water seeping into Woburn and Wilmington. The report was given to the Burlington Selectmen some months ago and an acknowledgement of sorts was made as to the fault of the dam and Burlington, more particularly with the troubles in the City of Woburn.

A public statement was released by the Burlington Selectmen Monday together with an oral statement saying that "The facts will come out at the proper time."

The public statement, released by the Burlington selectmen said:

"The Selectmen of the Town of Burlington have consulted with professional engineers of great repute in an effort to find a solution to problems that have arisen as a result of the construction of the reservoir. The engineers have made a formal recommendation to the Board of Selectmen, and it is the intention of the Board to follow that recommendation. In view of the litigation in which the Town is involved, Town Counsel has strongly urged the Selectmen not to make public the report of the professional engineers since the divulgence of that report could effect the rights of both the Town and of other parties whose responsibility for the problems is still open to question.

Accordingly, the Selectmen have accepted the advice of Town Counsel and will not release the report."

Wilmington's Town Manager, Sterling Morris, who last summer was advising that Burlington should be given an opportunity to find and correct the faults of the dam has written letters to the Town of Burlington in the past few weeks indicating his disappointment at the lack of action by that town.

Selective Service Registration in the Town Hall

The Military Service Act of 1967 is still in effect. Every male resident, on reaching the age of 18, must register with the Selective Service. This law includes all citizens and certain aliens.

Because of the cessation of combat, on the part of the Armed Forces of the United States, there has been no "draft" of young men in recent months, but they must still register.

Formerly everyone went to Billerica, Draft Board 99, George R. Cushman chairman. The Draft Board has now been relocated in the city of Lawrence, with Mr. Cushman still chairman.

Wilmington residents may register with the Veteran's Service Director, Paul A. Farrell, or his assistant Marion M. Reilly, in the Town Hall, on any weekday when the Town Hall is open. The office is closed for lunch from 1 to 2 pm daily.

Those required to register may do so 30 days prior to, or within 30 days after their 18th birthday, aliens within six months after admission for permanent residence.

To the members of the Wilmington
Police Department:
My wife and I would like to extend our sincerest appreciation to each of you for the many kindnesses you showed us during our recent illnesses and convalescence. It is gratifying to know that there are those who care at a time when help is most needed. We ap-and effort you spent to paint our house.

Your concern to ease our burdens brought joy to my family and myself, and you can be assured you will be days to come.

Again, many thanks.

Pigs and methane gas

In this day of sudden energy need, the lowly pig is taking a prominent position in stories which have appeared recently, in newspapers and on TV programs. Pigs - and chickens too.

The stories have to do with people manufacturing a gas to run their old Chevrolets, or to provide heat for small greenhouses, etc. The stories have originated in a dozen places in this country plus a few from dear old England.

The gas that is involved is methane, a cousin of natural gas. Methane is generated naturally where leaves have fallen into old mill ponds, and in marshes and swamps. It is produced by a process known as anaerobic decay, which means a biological breakdown of animal or vegetable matter without oxygen being present. The product is a nitrogen rich residue (the muck of swamps) and methane.

Last summer the Town Crier had a story of an "explosion" which happened twenty five years before, in the basement of the old Shamrock, at Silver Lake, and how the fire marshalls made Al Riley dig up his gas tanks across the street because they did not understand about methane.

And everyone knows the story of the Will-o-the-Wisp, that floats around, a blue flame, in the peat bogs of Ireland. That flame is burning methane.

A very good source of methane, and the basis of the current stories, is based on the breakdown of pig manure, or chicken manure. Unfortunately perhaps, pigs and chickens are not present in the numbers that they used to be, say thirty or forty years ago.

About half of the householders used to have a family pig, out in back, where possibly there is a riding horse today. The pig took care of the garbage question, so that there didn't have to be any garbage collection and consequent taxes. And, in the fall, he was killed, and the ham and bacon taken to Reids, in Burlington, to be smoked. Smoked ham, in the markets of Woburn, was about 25¢ or 35¢ a pound, and smoked shoulder about a dime cheaper.

Reids was quite a place, in Burlington. Today it has been converted into a lumber supply house, but it was a smoke house, for hams and bacons for well over one hundred years. It was more than just a ham works - it was a place that was well known as a meeting place. The Wilmington militia, on at least two occasions 150 years ago, had in their orders to "march to Reids" and then on to Lexington or someplace for inspection by the Governor or some military notable.

It was not only the back-yard porker, of course, who was smoked in the ham works Reids. There were in the various towns dozens of pig farms, where garbage from Boston and other cities went into the feeding of future hams and shoulders. Any place that was off the main highways of Wilmington, or Tewksbury, or Andover, or Burlington would have up to 500 porkers, busily growing for the market, and one place, known as Breezy Hill Farm, in Burlington, boasted of 1000 brood sows.

Only two or three pig farms are left - have been able to resist the pressure of increasing value of real estate and higher standards imposed by local boards of health, plus other factors.

The price of ham today is skirting $2.00 a pound. Towns and cities have committees who are supposed to worry about getting rid of garbage and rubbish. The old pig farms have been driven out.

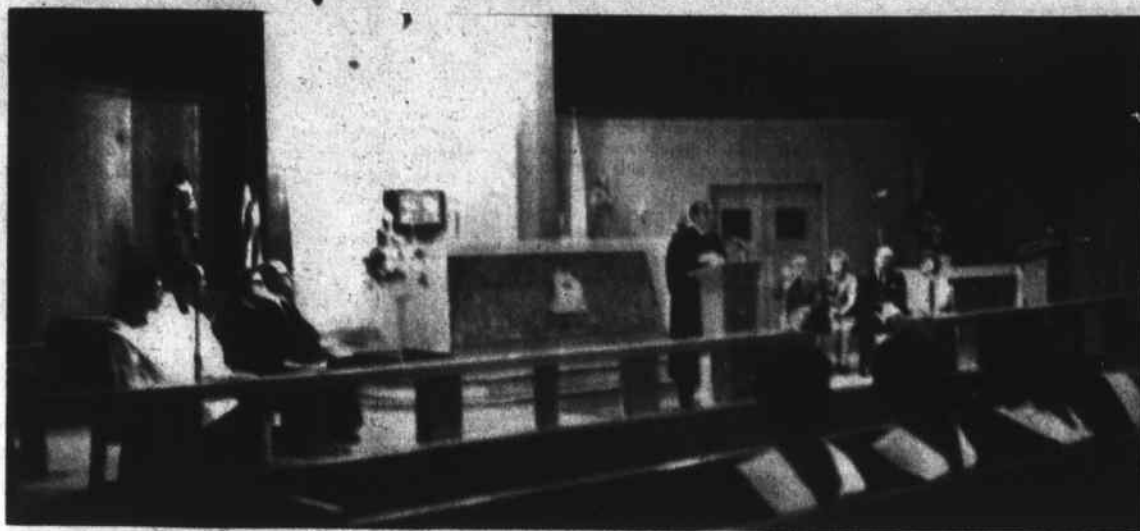

Driving out the old piggeries might have been a victory for something called "civilization", but it has been a punishment to more than a few family budgets.

A few pigs, here and there, would do wonders to the price of ham and the cost of garbage collection. Not to mention being the source of methane gas, this winter.

An ecumenical service of Thanksgiving, in St. Dorothy's Church on the eve of Thanksgiving drew nearly 200 participants. The service had been organized by Brother Joseph Baggetta, Deacon of St. Dorothy's Church, who conducted the Welcome, and the Opening Prayer.

The Bible reading was from Genesis: Chapter 1, by the Rev. Mr. Miller. There was also a Bible reading from Luke, Chapter 17 by the Rev. Mr. Schreck of the First Baptist Church. The Sermon, drawing from the 103rd 106th and 67th Psalms, was by the Rev. George Taylor of the Congregational Church, and the Thanksgiving Prayer was by the Rev. Fr. Lawrence Drennan. Choirs participating were the Congregational, the Methodist and the Men's Choir from St. Dorothy's Church. The Recessional, sung in unison, was the Battle Hymn of the Republic.

ECUMENICAL SERVICE OF THANKSGIVING

THE REV. GEORGE TAYLOR, III, of the Wilmington Congregational Church delivered the sermon, at an ecumenical service of Thanksgiving in St. Dorothy's Church, on November 21st. Shown at left are the Rev. Brother Joseph Baggetta, Deacon, and Fr. Lawrence Drennan, Assistant Pastor of St. Dorothy's Church; the Rev. Peter Schreck of the First Baptist Church and the Rev. Willis Miller of the Wilmington United Methodist Church. At right are four laymen, Walker Spring (Methodist), Mrs. Shirley White (Baptist), Robert Mullerky (Congregational) and Mrs. Dorothy Boyden (St. Dorothy's). In the foreground may be seen some of the ladies from the Methodist Choir.

Rusty Water

The Selectmen of Wilmington, in their good judgement have condemned a Boston firm for rusty water conditions in the town of Wilmington. There are a few words to be said.

Wilmington, and Tewksbury, and other towns, are experiencing rusty water, and (not a part of this discussion) manganese in the water. The towns are over-drawing, at least part of the time, on their available supplies.

All through New England there are deposits of iron, called bog-iron. With the help of certain microbes bog-iron "grows" in areas of stagnant waters. If given enough time these deposits of bog iron can amount to thousands of tons. There was a story in the Town Crier a year or so past, of such a deposit on the Corum Farm, of North Wilmington. It was a deposit of bog iron which supplied ore to the Iron Masters of the Saugus Iron Works, back in the seventeenth century.

A well field in Wilmington (the Town Park) which cost about half a million dollars, is said to be providing rusty water for the water mains. The selectmen are unhappy. So, too, are many water users.

The late Harold Smith, a dozen years ago, is said to have told the Wilmington Water Department not to put wells in the Town Park. Mr. Smith was the founder and owner of the Smith Pump Co., of Woburn Street. He said, and so did others, that there was a deposit of bog iron in the vicinity.

This was the site where the Boston firm later recommended (or seems to have recommended) wells, and where the wells were put in.

This seems to condemn the engineering firm - but does it? Are there other factors? Did the engineering firm make some recommendations which were not fulfilled? Was there a slipup somewhere, - a slip-up which was not the fault of that firm?

The Wilmington Water Department is known for its practice of economy. Was there too much economy, somewhere?

5% Voltage reduction

The Reading Municipal Light Department is cooperating with all the New England electric utilities in the order from the New England Governors Council for a 5% voltage reduction from 4:00 pm to 8:00 pm each day of the week. This reduction was carried out for the first time on Monday, November 26th. The department is taking extreme care that the voltage level is not reduced beyond the planned 5% in any one area. It is apparent also, that Reading Municipal Light Department customers are voluntarily conserving energy, as the demand experienced by the Reading system was considerably less than projected for Monday.

Further contingency plans are being developed in case more severe shortages in fuel for generating plants in the area occur. In order to carry out a plan like this, it must be determined where the priority needs are on the system. It is hoped that a 100% curtailment plan on a rotating basis will never have to be implemented.

STATE HOSPITAL HAS ANNUAL AUDIT

It's annual reckoning time for the Tewksbury's third largest employer, Tewksbury State Hospital.

State Auditor Thaddeus Buczek has sent an audit team to make the state's yearly check of the books at Tewksbury Hospital.

Anthony Rulli of 10 Susan Ave., Burlington, leads the team. After they've eyed the books, a report of the results will be released by Buczek's office.

Nine hundred and fifty-two employees work at the 904 acre hospital on East Street. Its annual payroll is over $2.6 million.

The town assessors slate the hospital's value to be $8.9 million. Last year, the state gave the hospital $8.7 million while the institution grossed $6.1 million.

The hospital can hold up to 1326 patients. At present, it's treating 1038 patients.

Thousands of native carnations will be on display at Burlington Mall on November 28th, 29th and 30th. The occasion is the Annual New Varieties Day of the New England Carnation Growers Association. It will be the 36th New Varieties Day!

Lumber is the carpenter's stock and trade. Never set out to do a carpentry job without yourself selecting the lumber you will use to do the job.

Estimate your lumber needs in such a way that you will be able to use standard lengths and widths with a minimum of waste.

Select lumber grades carefully. Use the right grade for the job.

Be sure to come to Sweeney Home Courtesy Center for the best available grades in the area.

Look for all your lumber, windows, unfinished furniture, carpeting and tile at Sweeney Home Courtesy Center, 615 Main St., Wilmington, 658-5061. Our carpet department features Orlite indoor and outdoor carpeting and many colors and patterns of Ludlow carpeting. We also handle the installation. Anderson, West-Pine windows and doors, Ceramic tile, Ly-Ka-Bric and Ly-Ka-Stone hand crafted wall facings are displayed. Open 8 am to 5 pm daily.

Helpful Hint: It is often possible to use cheaper grades of lumber on some parts of some jobs.

Prospective home buyers often waste hours of precious time and drive many needless miles to look at homes they are not interested in. Many of them do not stop to think that this can be avoided.

Ask questions on the telephone. This is the easiest way to avoid tasks that do not need to be done anyway! Decide what features are indispensable in a house, and always ask if these are included in the house before you go and look.

You will make house hunting that much easier. Remember, too, your professional real estate agent can be of outstanding help and assistance to you.

Make buying or selling real estate a pleasure, not a burden; call on the knowledgeable salespeople at A & M Fenton Realty, Inc. 104 Lowell St., Rte. 129, Wilmington, 658-3221, 944-6457 to handle the transaction for you. If you're buying a home, we can show you all the important properties available in the area, and if you are selling your home, we'll give it full coverage for a prompt sale. Wildcats feast on Redmen

The Wilmington High School football team had their Thanksgiving feast a little early last Thursday as they devoured an undermanned Tewksbury club by the score of 34-0.

The game, played on a slightly soggy Center School field, was dominated by the bruising Wildcats from start to finish. About the only thing Tewksbury won was the toss as Tewksbury Co-captains Tom Morin and Dave Smith met with Wildcat Tri-captains Dean Devlin, Jack Holloway, and Doug Stewart at midfield.

Tom Morin took Doug Stewart's opening kickoff back to the Redmen 35 before being swarmed upon by about seven hungry Wildcats.

Senior Smith opened at quarterback with a backfield of Morin, sophomore standout Rick Mackey, and newly assigned fullback Neil O'Connor.

This initial series saw both lines experiencing some anxiousness as two offside penalties were called on the Wildcats. A Morin run right and two penalties gave Tewksbury a first and five situation at their own 48. Morin then attempted a wide run to the right again only to be crushed by defensive end Dana Mullarky of Wilmington. Tom managed to struggle for a couple of yards nevertheless, but on the next play disaster was once again to strike the mistake-prone Redmen. Dave Smith bobbled center Gerry McCarthy's snap and big Jack Styles pounced on the loose ball at his own 49. This gave the Wildcats their first offensive opportunity of the morning and did much to weaken the spirit of the underdog Redmen.

The Wildcats failed to move the ball on this first series however, managing to move down to Tewksbury's 45 before Dean Devlin dropped a Carl Butler pass on a third and four situation. Morin took Wilmington's first punt and was buried at his 16 yard line. A motion penalty on Tewksbury put the ball on the 11. Two Morin runs brought the ball out to the 24 before Tewksbury was forced to punt.

The ballgame ended for all intents and purposes on third punt by Tewksbury. Morin, pressed into service as a punter because of an injury to Brian Smith's right hand, had his kicked blocked by a hard charging Ricky Howlett who came in unmolested from the left side of Tewksbury's line.

Howlett followed the bouncing ball into the Redmen endzone where he picked it up on a couple of hops for the first Wildcat touchdown. Doug Stewart booted the extra point and Wilmington was ahead to stay 7-0.

With 4:23 remaining in the first quarter Tewksbury would try to get something started offensively at their own 27. The Redmen could only pick up one yard in three tries as the Wilmington front of Jack Styles, Ricky Howlett, Jack Holloway, Don Churchill and Dana Mullarky completely stopped the plunges of Mackey and Morin.

Morin, obviously flustered by the blocked punt, saw a slight rush coming on his next kick and took off down the left sideling. He managed to carry just seven yards to his 37 and failed to pick up the first down.

The Wildcats with excellent field position after Morin's gamble, failed to move again. Doug Stewart dropped a Butler pass and Ray Noel was separated from a Butler pass by a jarring hit from linebackers Gary Hauswirth and Kevin Jarnagan.

The Redmen defense had shown an ability to stop the Wildcat offense in the first quarter, but once again a mistake had put Tewksbury behind.

Wilmington took a Brian Smith

JUMP FOR JOY: Tri-captain Jack Holloway triumphantly lifts Rick Howlett (65) in the opening quarter of the Turkey Day encounter. Rick had just recovered a blocked punt in the Redmen end zone for the opening td.

punt as the second quarter opened.

On the next play tackles Steve Flagg and Gerry McCarthy diagnosed the famed Wilmington crossback to perfection as they combined to sack Devlin for a two-yard loss back to his 31. On a second and twelve situation linebacker Jarnagan dove to tip a pass away from Devlin on the left sideline. Butler has shown that he can pass the ball, and he did just that on the next play as he hit a wide open Doug Stewart at his 36. Stewart stepped over a sprawled Neil O'Connor and raced to the Redmen 34. On a third and two situation with less than eight minutes to play in the half Paul Fitch broke tackles and rambled down to the 12.

The next play had the Redmen baffled as coach Bellissimo decided to open up his bag of tricks. What looked like a crossback developing turned into a nightmare for Tewksbury. Butler handed to Fitch on the right who in turn gave it to a streaking Ray Noel. Noel tightened down the left sideline for the touchdown. Stewart's kick fell short, but with 7:30 left in the half the Wildcats held a commanding 13-0 lead.

Tewksbury then proceeded to give the ball right back to the opportunistic Wildcats. Dave Smith fumbled at his own 23 and on the first play from scrimmage after Wilmington score. Jack Holloway recovered and the anxious Wildcat offense charged on to the field. Butler went for the quick score after the break as he lofted a pass just over defender Neil O'Connors head and into the arms of ace kicker-receiver Doug Stewart.

This brought the ball to within inches of another Wilmington score. A Butler sneak failed on the next play. Wilmington then gave the ball to the dependable tri-captain Devlin who banged in for the Wildcat's third score. Stewart's kick was true and with 6:32 remaining till half time the score stood, Wilmington 20, Tewksbury 0.

Another Wilmington score was thwarted after Tewksbury again was forced to punt. After a five play drive that began at the Redmen 45 Fitch fumbled the ball in the endzone. Senior tackle Jim Looney recovered the ball and prevented further embarrassment for Tewksbury.

The Wildcat fans loudly booed the officials' decision on this play as they thought the whistle was a little slow in sounding. There was a big pileup as Fitch drove from the two yard line, and as he reached paydirt a group of Redmen managed to take the ball away, with Looney getting credit for the recovery.

The Redmen failed to move on the next set of downs and the half ended on a strange defensive play by Tewksbury. After a Carl Butler aerial went off end Doug Stewart's fingertips in the endzone, the junior signal called dropped back to pass again.

This time his pass was batted high in the air by junior tackle Steve Flagg. A group of Wilmington and Tewksbury players jammed together as they waited for the ball to come down. Eventually tackle Gerry McCarthy leaped and grabbed the floater amidst a group of clawing, grabbing hands.

Fitch on a ramble: Senior running back Paul Fitch (30) rambles down to the Redmen 12 to set up the second Wilmington td. Trailing the play is Tewksbury's Rich Sullivan, while teammates Fred Whitehouse (white shoes) and Jim Looney (79) hope to bring down the Wildcat back. Coming over to help is Doug Stewart (36).

PLENTY OF TIME: Wildcat quarterback Carl Butler (41) is about to unload a 35 yd pass completion to Doug Stewart upfield at the Redmen 34 yard line in the second period. Bob Bavota (33) has upended Tewksbury lineman, while Jack Holloway (60) is looking for someone to hit.

The next play had the Redmen baffled as coach Bellissimo decided to open up his bag of tricks. What looked like a crossback developing turned into a nightmare for Tewksbury. Butler handed to Fitch on the right who in turn gave it to a streaking Ray Noel. Noel tightened down the left sideline for the touchdown.

Stewart's kick fell short, but with 7:30 left in the half the Wildcats held a commanding 13-0 lead. Tewksbury then proceeded to give the ball right back to the opportunistic Wildcats. Dave Smith fumbled at his own 23 and on the first play from scrimmage after Wilmington score. Jack Holloway recovered and the anxious Wildcat offense charged on to the field. Butler went for the quick score after the break as he lofted a pass just over defender Neil O'Connors head and into the arms of ace kicker-receiver Doug Stewart.

This brought the ball to within inches of another Wilmington score. A Butler sneak failed on the next play. Wilmington then gave the ball to the dependable tri-captain Devlin who banged in for the Wildcat's third score. Stewart's kick was true and with 6:32 remaining till half time the score stood, Wilmington 20, Tewksbury 0.

Another Wilmington score was thwarted after Tewksbury again was forced to punt. After a five play drive that began at the Redmen 45 Fitch fumbled the ball in the endzone. Senior tackle Jim Looney recovered the ball and prevented further embarrassment for Tewksbury.

The Wildcat fans loudly booed the officials' decision on this play as they thought the whistle was a little slow in sounding. There was a big pileup as Fitch drove from the two yard line, and as he reached paydirt a group of Redmen managed to take the ball away, with Looney getting credit for the recovery.

The Redmen failed to move on the next set of downs and the half ended on a strange defensive play by Tewksbury. After a Carl Butler aerial went off end Doug Stewart's fingertips in the endzone, the junior signal called dropped back to pass again.

This time his pass was batted high in the air by junior tackle Steve Flagg. A group of Wilmington and Tewksbury players jammed together as they waited for the ball to come down. Eventually tackle Gerry McCarthy leaped and grabbed the floater amidst a group of clawing, grabbing hands.

With the score tied at 2-2 in the third frame, Brian Walsh scored the game winner at 4:42 beating the Vikings' John Sullivan for the third time in the contest. Rich Lyer gave the Runners some breathing room less than three minutes later with his fourth seasonal tally to provide the final margin of victory. Jim Bransfield and Wayne Hamilton lit the scoring lamp once each for the Vikings.

Sun. Nov. 25...The O'Connell brothers, Dan (four goals and an assist) and Dave (one goal and two assists) paced the Vikings to a 7-2 triumph over the winless Flyers. Art Campbell and John Curran tallied single goals for the league leaders to complete the scoring. The Runners continued their winning ways, pinning a 6-3 defeat on Dolly's. Rich Lyer's fifth seasonal tally at 8:16 of the middle frame snapped a 3-3 tie and the Runners went on to score twice in the last stanza as goalie Tony Jankowski blanked Dolly's the rest

Last week the Gold's played the Middlesex League leading Woburn sextet and turned in a creditable performance, despite losing 4-0. On Sunday afternoon the Maroon's lost a tough 1-0 game to the No. Middlesex B's.

Energy Crisis: It is not yet determined what effect the current shortage will have on our many, planned indoor programs this winter. As soon as the Rec. Dept. learns of any cutback in program offerings, notification will be given. Adult Education: Over 5,000 interest surveys have been distributed to school children in Wilmington who were instructed to bring the forms home to have their parents fill out and return to the Recreation Dept.

These questionnaires seeking education/recreation program preferences from the adult population in town will be used to plan future offerings. The proposed substitute adult education program to be sponsored by the Recreation Dept. may have to be eliminated due to our energy problem. Further word will be forthcoming. Questionnaires for adults who did not receive them are available at the Rec. Dept. office at the Mildred Rogers School.

Ladies Slimastics: Our returning adult education questionnaires show a high percentage of interest in our slim-trim program. There is no charge and any girl may come to the high school gym on Tuesday evenings from 7:30 to 9. Classes will resume January 8th.

Santa's Workshop: Santa and his elves will be waiting for all Wilmingtonites to visit his workshop at St. Dorothy's annex, next to the church on Main St. Santa will arrive by fire engine from the North Pole on Monday, December 17 at 6:30 pm at the workshop.

Polaroid color Enaps of children with Santa will be available as well as a prize drawing each night for those signing Santa's guest book. Workshop hours will be from 6:30 to 9:30 pm Monday, December 17th through Friday, December 21st and Saturday, December 22nd from 1 to 5 pm, plus Sunday, December 23rd from 1 to 6 pm.

Intertown action...Mite A (6-0-2)...The Mite B's remained undefeated by tying a hardskating Byfield team 1-1. Brian Sughrue, assisted by Billy Barrett and Kevin Sullivan, scored the lone and tying goal early in the second period. The third period was all defensive play notably on the part of Ed Olson and Mike Kidd.

Squirt A (2-4-3)...Frank Divita's unassisted goal with 2:35 left to play enabled the A's to garner a 1-1 tie with Somerville last Sunday. Mike Taylor was excellent in preserving the tie, turning back 12 Somerville shots.

Squirt B (2-5-1)...The B's dropped their fifth game being shelled by Winthrop 7-1. Wilmington's lone tally came in the final frame off the stick of Chris Turner with George Boudreau assisting.

Peewee B (4-3-1)...Wilmington trounced No. Reading last Saturday 7-0. Tallies by Pete Doney and Jim Burns in the opening period gave the B's an early 2-0 lead. Three goals in the second period upped it to 5-0 as Mike Beatrice, Dennis Foley and Rich Robinson all found the range. In the final period Paul Boudreau and Robinson topped off the scoring with a goal apiece.

Last Sunday in a Tyngsboro League encounter Wilmington outshot So. New Hampshire 3-0. Pete Davey opened the scoring in the first period with Mike Beatrice assisting. In the middle frame the A's scored two more as Tim McCann assisted by Paul Boudreau and Dennis Foley unassisted lit the scoring lamp.

Peewee C (3-3-1)...The C's defeated Medford 5-3 last Saturday. Jamie Boudreau assisted by Bob Taylor in the first period gave Wilmington a 1-1 tie. In the middle frame Boudreau assisted by Eric Banda; and Tony Voles from Bill Hanlon gave the C's a 3-2 edge. Tallies by Bob DiScivillo and Bob Taylor in the final period iced the game for Wilmington, assists were collected by Mark Lanni, Boudreau and Mark Potenza.

Bantam A (2-4-0)...The A's were beaten by league leading Cambridge last Monday 6-2. Cambridge had a 3-0 lead before Al Wilson put Wilmington on the scoreboard assisted by Paul Trickett and John Smith in the second period. In the third period Cambridge scored three goals in a

Why John Havlicek volunteered to be a substitute.

It all started the day we at Dial Finance approached John Havlicek with a proposal. We wanted him to endorse our company, but not until he had proven to himself that Dial was a different kind of finance company—one with a dimension of service that runs far beyond the ordinary.

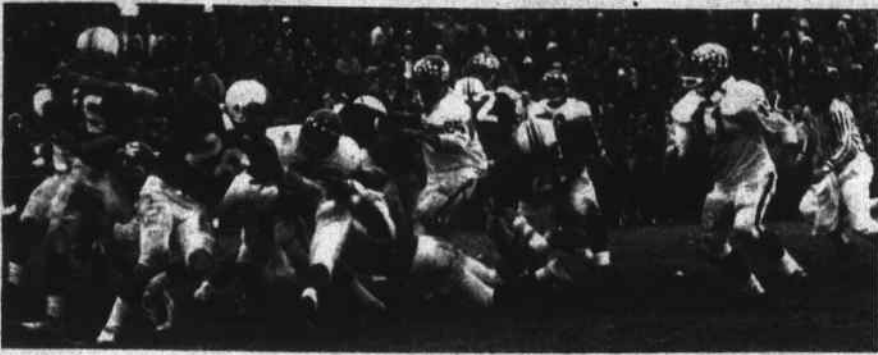

We asked John to volunteer to be a substitute—for you, the consumer. Without alerting any Dial personnel, we had John call several Dial offices with a battery of questions you the consumer might ask about loans.

Here, in John's words, is what happened: "As I was dialing my first call, I couldn't help but think that the Dial management had great confidence in its personnel. It was a gutsy kind of thing to do, because they didn't know what kinds of questions I'd ask."

"It turned out that in every case, my questions were answered promptly and directly. But what was most impressive was this: I got no sales pitches and no pressure of any kind. They didn't even ask my name. It was like their only purpose was to help me—with no strings attached."

"One fellow I remember in particular, I threw some very heavy questions at him—mostly concerning big loans in the nine and ten thousand dollar area. I asked him to explain what home equity was...and how much I could borrow against my home equity. What surprised me was that he answered some very complicated questions in a very simple and direct way. And cleared up some misunderstandings I had about big loans."

The kind of service and consideration John Havlicek received from Dial isn't reserved for just basketball NOWHERE TO GO? Redmen quarterback Dave Smith is about to be sacked for a seven yard loss by Wilmington's Jack Holloway on the initial play following the Wildcats third touchdown. Out front to lead the play is Redmen co-captain Tom Morin (28) with hopes of blocking Wilmington's tri-captain Dean Devlin (11). Other identifiable Wildcats are Rick Howlett (65) and Don Churchill (75). While Tewksbury's Paul Bradley (61) is falling out of the way.

A NEAR MISS: Senior end Doug Stewart (36) has beaten defensive back Fred Whitehouse (56) but fails to hold onto the pigskin in the Redmen end zone late in the first half.

THE FEAST IS OVER: As Doug Stewart (36) is about to convert the 34th point in the contest at 1:42 of the final stanza. Following the flight of the ball is Wildcat holder Ray Noel (44) as Redmen Bill Jarnigan (40) falling in front of Wilmington's Carl Butler (41) and Gary Hauswirth vainly attempt to block the PAT. Other Wildcats in the photo are offensive Center Dana Daniell (50) and back Bob Bavota (33).

A creaking or grinding sound from your wheels when going around turns, could mean a number of things! It might, for example, mean that your wheel has a wheel bearing that is defective.

If this is true, the sound you hear is the bearing grinding itself to bits. A much less serious possibility is that a wheel cover or hubcap is creaking.

All you have to do in this case is remove the cover and bend the tabs until they will make the cover fit more tightly.

All you have to do for top quality and personal service is visit Wilmington Ford, 275 Main St., Rte. 38, Wilmington, 658-6800. Spotlighters need storage space

The Wilmington Spotlighters have realized one of their long-time ambitions. They have built a stage of their own. It is portable and can be used for many different types of performances. In between shows, however, they need a place to store it. A clean, dry facility such as a barn or a garage would be most desirable, ideally on ground level.

The stage, when dismantled, does not take up a great deal of space, probably less than half of a small garage. It consists of 11 pieces of flooring, 4 ft. sq.; eight lightweight flats; 11 2 x 4's; and several pieces of bracing 4 ft by 18 in. which can be stacked. Anyone having such space to donate may contact Bob Jennings at 658-8518. In appreciation, they will receive a lifetime complimentary ticket to all Spotlighter productions, with the exception of the annual Dinner Theater Dance.

At their monthly meeting, Monday evening, it was announced that the Spotlighters will no longer be sponsored by the Recreation Department and it was decided to hold a cake sale to raise funds to enable the group to put on their spring production of "Never Too Late" by Sumner Arthur Long. The sale will be held at Wilmington Plaza from 10 am to 3 pm on Saturday, December 15th. It is requested that each member of the group bake at least one cake (pies, cookies, breads, etc.) for the sale.

It was also decided that the Spotlighters would again go Christmas Caroling on December 17th at the homes of shut-ins in Wilmington. Anyone who knows of shut-ins who would appreciate a visit from the Spotlighters may contact Elaine DePasquale at 658-4306.

TEA AT DEMING WAY

A tea was held on Deming Way by the Wilmington Rainbow Girls on Friday, November 23rd. In spite of cold weather, many girls and approximately 26 Senior Citizens were in attendance.

Refreshments were served and a sing-along was enjoyed. Table decorations included little pilgrims handmade from squashes loaned by Mrs. Irwin of Deming Way. It was a very festive event.

Friday evening the girls and their mothers will attend a performance of "The Sound of Music" given by the Colonial Chorus of Reading at the Stoneham Jr. High at 8 pm. This is another fund raising event. Contact Mrs. Walley 658-3451 for tickets.

The Shape-up Shop which was so successful last week will continue this Thursday evening. If other mothers and daughters wish to join before the holidays, there is still room for new members. The class will begin at 7:30 sharp at the Masonic Temple.

BIGGER WINDOWS MAKE A BETTER SMASH! Last week all the windows were taken out of the Whitefield School. The smash was wood, and probably dated back to 1906, when the school was built. Substituted were windows with aluminum frames, and much larger panes of glass. The idea was to make the school more air-tight, and not waste heat through the old windows.

Monday morning, before the school had opened for the day, the custodian found that the window under the fire escape had been smashed, with one stone.

Ten Men of Massachusetts Initiative Petition to control school budgets

An Initiative Petition, to further regulate the support of schools by authorizing a two thirds vote of a municipal legislative body to reduce a school budget is being circulated in the towns and cities of Massachusetts.

The petition is headed by a group of ten men, all in public life, who seek to reduce the powers of school committees to dictate the amount of money that municipalities have to appropriate for school support.

The petition, if there are a sufficient number of validated names of voters, would be on the 1974 ballot as a referendum question. It seeks to make school budgets subject to a two thirds vote of town meetings and city councils.

Heading the list of the "Ten Men" on the Initiative Petition is Walter Kelliher, Mayor of Malden.

Third on the list is James J. Sullivan, City Manager of Lowell. Other names include the Town Manager of Arlington, the Mayor of Everett, and the presidents of the Massachusetts Selectmen's Association and Massachusetts Association of Town Finance Com-

Massachusetts State Federation
Conference Monday in Malden

Members of the Wilmington Women's Club are taking an active part in an 8th District Conference, to be held Monday at the First Baptist Church, in Malden. Mrs. Malcolm S. Butler, Mrs. Frederick L. Worby, Mrs. Robert A. Pease and Mrs. Hugo Wiberg are participating, from Wilmington.

Coffee and Registration is to be at 9:15 am to 10, to be followed by guests from the State Federation, speaking.

The afternoon will feature John R. Verani, Secretary of Consumer Affairs for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Mr. Verani is a graduate of Harvard College and Harvard Law School, and was Chairman of the Massachusetts Public Utilities Commission before assuming his present position.

There will be a chorus, directed by Mrs. George Snowden of the Mother's Club of Medford Hills, and composed of members from each club in the 8th District. This is to be an interesting and informative meeting. Bring a sandwich, and coffee and desert will be served.

date advanced

The cataclysm that struck Wall Street a week ago Monday had its effect on Wilmington two days later.

Calls were made to the Wilmington Industrial Development Commission, on Wednesday, from the Consulates of 10 countries. All had the same message: The previous arrangements, to take part in an all day seminar in Wilmington, no longer held.

The reasons were the same, too. No one could predict prices. There was an uncertainty as to raw materials. There was no direct knowledge of the future value of the dollar. All of these have to do with international trade, and the consular offices, in every respect except two, were acting kittenish.

There was nothing for the Wilmington IDC to do but cancel, and hopefully set a date for a seminar in January. There had been a lot of hard work. It was all water over the dam.

That there was a definite interest in the proposed seminar was a certainty. The IDC even received a few telephone calls, after it had believed that the entire industrial neighborhood had been canvassed.

Hopefully, the date of the seminar to be held in the future is January 16th.

Employees seek four day week

The employees of the Town of Wilmington are nothing if not advanced in their thinking. The time is approaching for annual negotiations on pay and working conditions. Long before it became fashionable to talk of a four day work week in order to save energy, the town employees had that idea.

It is several weeks now, but they have submitted a demand for a four day week, to the town. Plus a 25% increase in pay. Plus increased vacations.
